Dear Mr. Fitzwater:

As you are probably aware, PL 97-377 contains language that prohibits General Services Administration (GSA) from obligating funds to contract for custodial, messenger, elevator operation, and guard services that were performed by GSA employees prior to December 18, 1982. We are, therefore, postponing the review of those custodial and guard activities previously mandated by OMB Circular A-76, and expect to continue their accomplishment by GSA employees through the end of this fiscal year.

At this time, we have no knowledge as to whether this prohibition will continue beyond September 30, 1983, but please be assured that, if we are directed to resume our A-76 reviews, we will work closely with CIA personnel to ensure that your security requirements are not compromised.

Sincerely,

BERTRAND G. BERUBE
